AGAHOZO-SHALOM
YOUTH VILLAGE
Restoring the Rhythm of Life

Genocide in Rwanda...

In the course of 100 days in 1994, nearly one million Rwandan men, women, and children were slaughtered, leaving the country in ruin and its populace traumatized and spiritually broken. The legacy of that tragedy is a nation of 2.8 million orphans and vulnerable children.

"Rwanda is from now on a land of hope; Agahozo-Shalom Youth Village is a collection of smiles."

Implementing the vision...

The Agahozo-Shalom Youth Village is a Special Project of the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee in collaboration with a unique set of strategic partners.
